Register for C&D World 2014

This is a great time to register for C&D World 2014, the Annual Meeting of the CDRA, March 5, which insures you will have your badge for the huge ConExpo-Con/Agg exhibition March 4–8 in Las Vegas. To receive your badge in the mail and avoid long lines at ConExpo-Con/Agg, we must receive your registration and payment by January 30, 2014.

Thanks to a great program, attending C&D World at the Bally's Resort will keep you up to date on everything going on in the industry, while heading over to the exhibition at the Las Vegas Convention Center will let you see the latest in construction equipment and technology at the biggest construction show of 2014.

At C&D World, our program includes Anirban Basu, CEO of the Sage Policy Group and Chief Economist for Associated Builders & Contractors, as well as an expert panel on end markets for C&D materials. Plus registrants to C&D World will get access to our inexpensive room block at Paris Resort & Spa at rates far below what is available elsewhere.

Rooms at the Paris will go quickly, so register early and make your reservations at the Paris while there is still room.
