Register for C&D World 2015

Registration is now open for C&D World 2015, the Annual Meeting of the CDRA, taking place March 29–31 at Nashville's Music City Convention Center. The conference program is available at www.cdworldexpo.com, and event information is also available at the association's website, www.cdrecycling.org.

2015 marks the 21st year for the event, and the show promises to be the biggest and best C&D World ever. Highlights include a keynote address by Ed Sullivan, Chief Economist for PCA (Portland Cement Association), the annual CDRA awards presentation, and a large exhibition of the newest equipment and latest technologies in the Construction & Demolition industry.

Here are just a few of the sessions that are planned for the conference:

- Legislation and Regulation That Affects the C&D Recycling Industry
- Running a Successful Recycling Operation from Day One
- Financing a Startup or Major Addition

You can see the full program at the C&D World official website, www.cdworldexpo.com. The conference program, the exhibition hall, and the opportunity to network with industry professionals from around the U.S., make C&D World 2015 the place to be for everyone involved in construction and demolition recycling.

By registering now, CDRA members can benefit from Early Bird pricing AND member discount rates. Register online here. Early Bird pricing is available only until February 27.

Current CDRA members can save on room rates, too! Discounted rates are available at the Hilton Nashville Downtown and the Hyatt Place Nashville Downtown. Both hotels are in close proximity to the Music City Center and Nashville's renowned nightlife. Book your hotel rooms by clicking here. The discount for hotel rooms is set to expire on February 27th, but don't wait—when those rooms are gone, they're gone!

2015 CDRA Awards—Nominate Now!

This year's CDRA Industry Awards will be presented at our Awards Breakfast and Membership Meeting beginning at 7:30am on Monday, March 30. Here's where we need your help: submit your nominations for the CDRA Recycler of the
