C&D Recycling Activity in 2014 and Beyond

How much construction and demolition activity will there be in the next few years? This important economic information will be provided by Anirban Basu, CEO of Sage Policy Group and Chief Economist of Associated Builders & Contractors, at C&D World, the Annual Meeting of the Construction & Demolition Recycling Association March 5 at Bally's in Las Vegas. Co-located with the huge ConExpo-Con/Agg exhibition, C&D World participants will receive badges to the big equipment show as well as be able to reserve rooms in the CDRA's block at the luxurious Paris Resort & Spa at incredibly reduced rates. How much lower? Going through the ConExpo-Con/Agg website rooms at Paris list for $220 a night; contacting the hotel directly they are $300 or above. C&D World registrants can reserve rooms at $179 a night, all week. To book at room at the Paris, see the details below.

Of course, C&D World has a full program in addition to a look at the future of the construction economy. End Markets, perhaps the most important part of any recycling process, will be discussed by industry experts Michael Gross of Zanker; Kim Williams of Marpan; and, Paul Valenti, Sun Recycling. Jason Haus, CEO of Dem-Con and Vice President of the CDRA, will look at the State of the C&D Recycling Industry. On the evening of March 5 at the outstanding Chateau Nightclub in front of the Paris there will be a social event for all attendees and guests.
