Register for C&D World 2014

Now is the time to register for C&D World 2014, the Annual Meeting of the C&D Recycling Association, which is March 5 and co-located with the ConExpo-Con/Agg equipment exhibition March 4-8 in Las Vegas. The CDRA meeting will be at the Bally's Resort, while discounted sleeping rooms are available to attendees at the adjacent Luxurious Paris Resort & Spa. All Attendees will receive badges to attend the ConExpo-Con/Agg show!

The meeting's fabulous program begins with a Construction Industry Forecast from Anirban Basu, Chief Economist for Associated Builders and Contractors and CEO of Sage Policy Group. Basu is noted for his on-target forecasts and ability to describe those projections to an audience.

And because we know the importance of being able to sell what C&D recycling operations produce, we have organized a panel of experts to discuss end products from our industry. On this panel will be Michael Gross, Zanker Resource Recovery; Kim Williams, Marpan; and Paul Valenti, Sun Recycling.

Jason Haus, CEO of Dem-Con and CDRA Vice President, will provide report on the State of the C&D Recycling Industry, and the CDRA will present its recently expanded C&D Awards, including the newest entrants to the C&D Hall of Fame. It will all be topped off that night by a social event at the Chateau Night Club in the front of the Paris.

To receive your badge in the mail, we must receive your complete registration and payment by January 30, 2014.
