

Member e-Newsletter

The National Trade Association Dedicated to the Construction & Demolition Recycling Industry

2/28/2019 | Volume 6, Number 2

Michael Gross, Jay Giltz Named to C&D Hall of Fame California's C&D Recycling Named Recycler of the Year Terri Ward CDRA Member of the Year

Michael Gross, Zanker Recycling, San Jose CA, and Clarence "Jay" Giltz, Eagle Crusher, will be inducted into the C&D Hall of Fame, the industry's highest honor, at C&D World 2019, March 10-12 in New York City.

Construction & Demolition Recycling, South Gate, CA, is the facility named C&D Recycler of the Year, while Terri Ward, Sparta Manufacturing, is CDRA Member of the Year. These awards were announced by the Construction & Demolition Recycling Association in recognition for excellence in the C&D industry. This is the 5th year the awards have been given out.

"This year's group of CDRA Award winners exemplify the best in C&D recycling," says Troy Lautenbach, Lautenbach Recycling and CDRA President. "The C&D industry is better off thanks to their efforts."

C&D Hall of Fame

Michael Gross is Director of Sustainability at Zanker, where he has worked for almost 30 years and is well known throughout the West Coast waste and recycling industry. Gross was a long time member of the CDRA's board and was responsible for shaping the association's policy and helping develop such programs as the Certification of Recycling Rates (CORR) program. He still serves on the Board of the Recycling Certification Institute, which administers the CORR program. He has represented the C&D recycling